THE SUBSCRIPTION PACK

In this competitive age, when we strive for awards in our work, our play and even our government and church, it is refreshing to find one sport, namely foxhunting, which is non-competitive. There are, of course, a few jealous thrusters in every hunt, but they are usually held well in check by the frowns of both the Master and his field. Because no one is expected to beat anyone else, foxhunting is enjoyed by young and old, rich and poor, novice and expert.

From this one might conclude that the organisations devoted to maintaining our organised packs of foxhounds pursue a placid course, unruffled by argument or dissension. Nothing could be farther from the truth. There still exist, although they grow constantly less, a few packs maintained by wealthy individuals who, because they pick up all the checks, can settle any and all the arguments. But there is hardly a subscription pack in the country which has not had at least one major battle in the course of its history, and there are several involved in such struggles right now.

Why should this be? One reason is that foxhunters are a singularly dedicated group of sportsmen. The passions of the chase are all too easily transferred to the passions of the hunt meeting. Another reason is that people hunt for a great variety of reasons, to watch hounds, to ride across country, to look at beautiful scenery, to see their friends, to wear sporty clothes, or to get their name in the paper. Since all these reasons bring people to coverts and thus contribute to the support of foxhunting, we need not look down our noses at any of them. They do make for widely varying points of view, however, which are prone to clash.

A third reason is that hunt organisations have become increasingly complex. Few Masters can devote full time to the job and must delegate a portion of their duties to others. To meet mounting costs most hunts, in addition to subscriptions, have had to rely on allied events to raise money, race meetings, point-to-points, hunter trials, hunter pace events, horse shows, gymkhana, hunt balls and others. Naturally this means more people. Now it is hard enough to get a group of people to work together when they are employed on a business basis. When they serve on a volunteer basis, however, and have to steal time away from making a living, raising a family and other obligations, the task becomes really difficult.

THE CHRONICLE

Small wonder, then, that they should have differences of opinion.

Here are a few things to remember. The only reasons we hunt are for fun and to make our community a pleasanter place in which to live. Fights won't accomplish either one. We cannot expect perfection in any walk of life, particularly with an amateur organisation of volunteers devoted to a sport. We cannot expect people to find the time for meetings at intervals sufficiently frequent to iron out all differences of opinion as they arise. The more practical goal is to find the people most interested and capable of running the different phases of a hunt and to let them get on with the job, even if their methods and results may not coincide in all respects with our own ideas.

Foxhunting has many outside enemies. The last thing we can afford is to fight among ourselves.

Letters

A Solution

Dear Sir:

There has been an ever increasing number of letters written to The Chronicle regarding the habits, practices, procedures, etc. of judging horse shows.

In other sports the judges rarely, if ever, collaborate and confer jointly during competition. Boxing has either one judge or three. Horse racing has several stewards, placing judges and time keepers. The timers in track often differ. There are usually two basketball officials who operate individually. Football has three judges. Professional baseball has three umpires. And there are many, many more instances of judges, referees and umpires operating as individuals, singly, and not collectively.

But not so at a horse show. Too often the judges stand on one side of the ring, shading their eyes and squinting to determine if it was a front or hind rub on the other side of the ring, or just mud. Their cards are marked identically. There is rarely a difference of opinion. One judge usually dominates. Too often judges are prone to pin names instead of performances. The names of the owners and the reputation of the horses are too often considered.

The best and most satisfactory judges to everyone concerned would be those that do not know any owners, riders, or horses. This appears to be somewhat impractical, as it would mean that judges would have to be brought in from distant places. But is there not a way to eliminate and abolish the present system of having judges who are personally and sociably

Racing

REVIEW OF THE WEEK

Howell E. Jackson's Tick Tock Defeats Reneged in Belmont Park's Sysonby

Raleigh Burroughs

Sysonby carved an undying chapter in the history of American racing. He won 14 of his 15 starts, including one dead-heat, losing only the Futurity Stakes. Foaled in 1902, he was the unquestioned three-year-old champ of 1905. Usually, he won with complete authority. Only once did he go postward at odds of greater than 1 to 1, and most of the time his price was prohibitively short.

Many old-timers who saw James R. Keene's smasher perform rated him above Man o'War. Nearly all of those ancient sages have passed on to that Super Race-course in the Sky, where the infield always is green and the escalators go all the way up to the press box, but they got their message over. Those among us who knew, personally, observers of racing early in this century heard enough to be convinced that Sysonby was quite a horse—may have been the greatest that ever lived. As no one has worked out a way to match three-year-olds 16 years apart we never shall know how Sysonby would have fared against Big Red. To get a worthwhile vote on the subject you'd have to dig up a jury (literally).

One thing in Sysonby's favor is that he has at Belmont Park a race named for him. Man o'War cannot make this claim.

The Sysonby Handicap

The event was inaugurated in 1946, as the Sysonby Purse. It was dignified with the title "The Sysonby Mile" in 1947, and became the Sysonby Stakes in 1953. In 1955, it was run at 1 1/8 miles and pursued at 100 grand in order to attract Nashua and High Gun (the latter won, incidentally). Most of the time the Sysonby has been at weight for age. Now it is a handicap.

In '56, it was back to one mile and $25,000.

Few races of such brief existence can show so brilliant a roster of winners. Lucky Draw, Armed, Citation, Capot, Arise, Miche, Tom Fool, High Gun and Jet Action accounted for the runnings from 1946 to 1956; High Gun and Tom Fool were two-time winners.

Handicapper F. E. Kilroe worked out a race this season that brought the multitude screaming to its feet.

Some people even were agog.

Hardened race-watchers of years' standing were noticed mumbling softly to themselves minutes after the judges had regained the use of their faculties and had hung out the "official" sign.

So skillfully were the imposts assigned that it was almost impossible to fix upon a favorite. The public never did decide between Howell E. Jackson's Tick Tock and Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' entry of Searching and Promised Land. Both entries closed at 4 to 1.

The members of the throng who took Tick Tock made the right guess, but only those directly upon the finish line knew it before the numbers were posted.

"Blanket Finish"

Necks separated the first four, and the eighth to dash under the wire was only about four lengths behind the first.

Reneged, top-weight under 124 pounds, took the lead at the beginning, with Gray Phantom, Searching and Promised Land pressing.

After half a mile, Reneged still led and Tick Tock was pushing the pace. These two fought it out to the stretch, and, at that point, the nearest competitor was three lengths back.

Coming to the wire, Ricci Tavi and Riley ranged up and four horses were spread across the track at the end. When the camera got things sorted out, it showed Tick Tock first, Reneged second, Ricci Tavi third and Riley fourth.

Tick Tock was collecting his initial first prize of the year. It was worth $21,150 to Mr. Jackson and put Tick Tock's 1957 earnings at $46,300. He has 3 seconds and 4 thirds.

Last year, when he was a three-year-old, Tick Tock earned $69,125, with 5 wins in 15 tries.

The son of Double Jay-Up Early, by Sun Again, was bred by Bull Run Stud, which is just another way of saying Howell E. Jackson.

Ed Christmas trains Tick Tock. Bill Boland had the mount in the Sysonby. The race was run on September 2.

Belmont Opening

Belmont opened its fall meeting on September 2 with the Fall Highweight Handicap.

Brookfield Farms' Itobe, carrying 124 pounds, won the six-furlong sprint down the Widener Course. The four-year-old son of Brookfield or Better Self (out of Isgoot, by *Rustom Sirdar) broke on top and stayed there to the end. He won by 1 1/2 lengths over Commendation. Gay Warrior was third, and Switch On—the highweight in the Highweight (125 pounds) was fourth.

Nashville, the choice, was bumped at the break and never got to running.

Brookfield Farms (Mr. Harry Z. Isaacs) received a check for $20,600 for Itobe's work, and stable employees must have partied grandly on the 4-to-1 odds.

Itobe won 3 races before the Highweight, one of them the Wilmington Handicap. His earnings tot up to $42,865.

Itobe, a four-year-old, is trained by E. L. Kelly. Eldon Nelson was aboard for the Highweight.

For those who came in late, the listing of Itobe as "by Brookfield or Better Self" does not indicate a penchant for promiscuity on the part of his dam, Isgoot. It means, merely, that after she was bred to Brookfield, competent veterinarians said Itobe was not to be. As Better Self was available, Isgoot, then, was bred to him and Itobe was.

The Foxcatcher National Cup Steeplechase

Chris Wood, Jr.

What looms as a banner season for hunt racing got under way at Fair Hill, Md., on Saturday, September 7, with the first of two meetings sponsored by the Cecil County Breeders' Fair. Held on the property which houses William duPont, Jr.'s Foxcatcher Hounds, the opening day featured the 18th running of the Foxcatcher National Cup Steeplechase. Contested over the National Cup Course, which undoubtedly is the finest brush course in the world, the demanding test of horse and rider lured but 5 starters.

Although the field was light, the stretch duel thrilled the 5,000 patrons in the stands as Mrs. A. J. Smithwick's Crag gave all that jockey A. P. (Paddy) Smithwick could get out of him to gain a head decision over Mrs. A. C. Randolph's Essex, ridden by Joseph L. Aitcheson, Jr. Running over sun-baked turf in the drought stricken area, the 9-year-old gelding by *Piping Rock-Highclere negotiated the 3 miles and 19 formidable brush fences in 5:44 4/5 to establish a new course record. The previous record of 5:53 was established by Morris H. Dixon's *Palaja, under Melvin Ferral, in 1953.

Coupled in the wagering with the eventual winner, Essex was the light weight in the field. Benefiting from the 5 lb. apprentice allowance, which Aitcheson will lose with his next victory over obstacles, Essex shouldered 138 lbs. Making use of this advantage, young Aitcheson hustled the winner of the spring renewal of the Connecticut Cup to the fore over the first obstacle. William C. Robinson, Jr.'s Cherwell, seeking a third victory in the "Foxcatcher" got over 2nd with Crag, Over Top and *Seregal in his wake. Trailing the field as named over the 5th fence, a Liverpool in front of the stands, William Frantz, Sr.'s *Seregal refused. Put to it again, the winner of last fall's International Gold Cup at Ligonier, Pa., dug in once more and was wisely ridden off the course by Kenneth Field.

While this mishap was attracting the attention of the spectators, Essex was fencing well and gradually drawing away from his field in the run "out in the country". Showing signs of tiring early, as he was making his first start since last October, Cherwell gave way to Crag, but found no trouble in showing the way to Miss Jane L. Flaccus' Over Top. The latter, ridden by Melvin Ferral, was seeking the almost impossible by making a "chasing" debut over this course.

Essex Opens Up Lead

Taking advantage of the down hill run over the 10th, 11th and 12th fences, Essex opened up a 25-length lead, as Crag was permitted to run on his own by Paddy Smithwick. Cherwell and Over Top continued, but were obviously not factors. Starting the uphill run Essex and Aitcheson faced the world's most formidable jump for "chasers", the "Chinese Wall", a 6' 4" Liverpool. Digging into his mount, Aitcheson got over well with Crag and Paddy Smithwick following suit. In the uphill run to the "Canal Turn" and 14th fence, Crag responded to Smithwick and the advantage enjoyed by Essex began to shrink. Running over fairly level ground in the final stages, Crag displayed his stamina and closed the gap with courage. Essex still had a slight lead as the pair took off for the 19th and final obstacle, but on landing, Crag appeared to show in front by a scant nose. Displaying the ability which has captured him many stakes, last year's leading "chase" rider went to work on his mount and drew away to a 3/4's advantage. Not one to sit still in the saddle when this happens, Aitcheson accepted the challenge pushed Essex on again. Inching up as a blanket could have covered both riders and horses, Essex just failed to get the nod as the pair drove under the wire. A well distanced and tired horse, Cherwell finished 3rd, 20-lengths in front of Over Top.

THE CHRONICLE

Crag and The Smithwicks

Trained by D. M. (Mike) Smithwick, the winner provided a gala day for the steeplechasing family from Hyde, Md. Following the official announcement, the family tramped to the paddock where Mrs. Smithwick and her sons received congratulations and the beautiful perpetual challenge trophy, donated by the late W. Plunket Stewart. Raised by membership subscriptions, the purse totaled $5,140, with the victorious Crag earning a net of $2,685. A winner of 3 and in-the-money on 4 other occasions in hunt meeting competition last year, Crag received 13 points to lead the brush division for the annual United Hunts Racing Association's awards. Although Mrs. A. J. Smithwick has received the $1,000 owners bonus check for this feat, she will be further honored when President Amory L. Haskell presents the trophies at the annual dinner to be held at the Ambassador Hotel in New York on October 15.

Gillian Wins Trouble Maker

Although the Foxcatcher National Cup rated top honors as the stellar attraction, the knowing followers of cross-country racing displayed more interest in the running of the Trouble Maker, a 3-mile test over timber. This event brought out a worthy field of 7, with Capt. J. L. B. Bentley's home-bred, Gillian, being the cynosure. A winner of 4 races, and in-the-money on 3 other outings over timber in 1956, the then 7-year-old mare won the timber racing division of the United Hunts Racing Association's awards and

SUMMER TAN RETIRED

Mrs. John W. Galbreath's $542,795.75 earner Summer Tan, one of the top horses of Nashua's and Swaps' generation when he was right, will enter stud next spring at Mr. Galbreath's Darby Dan Farm, Lexington.

Bred by Mrs. Galbreath when she was Mrs. Russell A. Firestone, the son of *Heliopolis-Miss Zibby, by Omaha, was rated at the head of the Experimental Free Handicap at two. Worse than second only five times and unplaced but thrice in 28 starts during four active seasons, he won the Youthful, United States Hotel, Cowdin and Garden State Stakes, Vosburgh, Gallant Fox and McLennan Handicaps, and Pimlico Special. In the Cowdin he set a new 6 1/2 - furlong Aqueduct record of 1:16, and in the Gallant Fox he established a new 1 5/8 - mile Jamaica standard of 2:41 3/5 over a sloppy track. F.T.P.

GREEK SHIP'S FIRST

Edward J. Potter, Jr.'s home-bred Plion, winner of the $50,000 - added Sapling Stakes at Monmouth Park, is the first stakes victor sired by the $312,050 earner Greek Ship, who stands at Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reineman's Crown Crest Farm, Lexington.

The syndicated stallion, half brother, by *Heliopolis, to Rampart, Noble Hero, Sky Ship and Ria Rica, won the Wakefield, Flash, Mayflower and Choice Stakes, Louisiana Derby, Metropolitan, Monmouth, Royal Palm, Ocean City and Atlantic City Turf Handicaps, and two runnings of the All American, in one of which he set a new 1 1/4 - mile record of 2:01 4/5. F.T.P.

NAIL TO ALMAHURST

Nail, champion juvenile of 1955, will enter stud next spring at Henry H. Knight's Almahurst Farm, Lexington.

Bred by Mr. Knight, the son of *Nirgal out of the Modesty Stakes winner No Strings took the Belmont and Pimlico Futurities, and Remsen Stakes at two. He placed in stakes last season to bring his total earnings of $250,230, a nice return on the $20,000 Mrs. Anson A. Bigelow had paid for him as a yearling at the Saratoga Sales; but a sinus growth hampered his further racing career. F.T.P.

GREAT CIRCLE'S FIRST

Pi R. Square, a winner at Randall Park, is the first victor sired by John de Blois Wack's $285,870 earner Great Circle, who stands at Duval A. Headley's Manchester Farm, Lexington.

The stallion by *Beau Pere out of the Sequoia Stakes captor Hemisphere took the Del Mar Derby, Oakland, Cinema and Sunset Handicaps, and Santa Anita Maternity. In the Del Mar Derby he set a new 1 1/8 - mile track record of 1:48 2/5, and at two over the same track he established a new 5 1/2 - furlong mark of 1:04. F.T.P.

ROMAN SANDAL'S FIRST

Mrs. S. H. Sadacca's A Dragon Killer, winner of the Ohio Endurance Handicap at Thistle Down, is the first stakes victor sired by the syndicated Roman Sandal, who stands at Doug Davis, Jr.'s High Hope Farm, Versailles.

The stallion by Roman-Alaport, by The Porter, took seven races and $8,980 at three and four. F.T.P.

PLION'S FAMILY

Plion's impressive victory in the $50,000 added Sapling Stakes at Monmouth Park over the best 2-year-olds in the East came as no surprise to owner Edward Potter, Jr., of Tennessee.

The same female family was responsible for one of the fleetest 2-year-olds of 1951. Jet Master, a colt by Jet Pilot out of Mattie J., a half-sister to the dam of Plion.

Jet Master was one of the best of his year, a crop that included Tom Fool and Primate. He won 12 races and $87,697 before his retirement to Spendthrift Farm, Lexington, where he now stands.

Another speedster from the family is Longleaf which won the Prairie State Stakes as a 2-year-old. Longleaf is a half-brother to Mattie J. and Tree Fly, the dams of Jet Master and Plion.

EVANSTEP SOLD

C. R. Valentine, Agent for A. R. Evans, Danville, recently negotiated the sale of the Rose Leaves Stakes winner Evanstep to Herman Goodpaster, Lexington. The only foal of racing age from the 12-year-old daughter of The Rhymer-Del Turban, by Abdel, won at two last season. She has a suckling full sister, by Ky. ILLINOIS

RACES FOR ILLINOIS-BREDS

Commenting on the bill recently passed by the Illinois State Legislature, providing an annual fund of approximately half a million dollars for purses in races for horses bred in Illinois, Grant Dorland says: "Programs favoring home-bred do help build a local Thoroughbred breeding industry and the industry is a factor in the economy of the state concerned. In addition, and of major importance to the industry as a whole, the spread of Thoroughbred breeding is probably the best thing that has ever happened to us from a public relations standpoint. Very little attention has been paid to this aspect of the home-bred movement."

"One feature of the Illinois law will hurt Illinois breeders in their climb toward higher class levels. That is the provision that Illinois-bred must be conceived in the state. Mares with excellent credentials are not easy to obtain. It is impossible to buy made stallions excepting in very rare instances. States which hamstring their breeders by forcing them to use inferior sires are worse than short-sighted. California has been the only major racing state with this provision. Florida, with a sensible law, recognizes as a Florida-bred, agreeing with The Jockey Club in that respect. The California-bred law has not resulted in an accumulation of first-class stallions in that state. *Khaled is the only top class sire in California today. Others have made their mark in that state and been sold to outside interests. States which protect any and every stallion within their borders are only kidding themselves and their breeders."

BRED IN ILLINOIS

The Thoroughbred Club of America which has its headquarters at Lexington, Ky., has issued a statement criticizing the bill recently introduced in the Illinois. The statement reads: "The Thoroughbred Club of America is unequivocally opposed to any program of restricting races to homebreds in any area. The end result of such a program is always to protect those who cannot compete in open events. Such a program seems particularly incongruous in Illinois, where Chicago racing has made every effort to bring horses together on their race tracks from all over the country."

CANCELLED STAKES

Writing in the August issue of "The Thoroughbred of California", Louis R. Rowan, president of the California Thoroughbred Breeders' Association complains of the action of California race tracks in cancelling stakes. He says: "What can be the reaction of eastern owners and trainers when opportunities that are widely advertised far in advance of a meeting can be cancelled, requiring only the permission of stewards who are paid by the track in question? Is it not a contradiction that any licensee must have its stakes program approved by the Board, but is required only to obtain the permission of its own employees in order to amend that program?

THE CHRONICLE

BALLYMOSS IN LAUREL

INTERNATIONAL

Ballymoss, three-year-old champion of Ireland, is the first horse to be officially entered for the $100,000 Washington, D. C. International at Laurel on November 11.

An invitation tendered to John McShain, owner of Ballymoss, by Laurel President John Schapiro has been accepted and present plans call for the Irish Derby winner to fly to Maryland early in November.

Ballymoss, who was a close second to Crepello in the English Derby early in June prior to his Irish Derby victory, is trained by Vincent O'Brien, the youthful but gray-haired Irishman who brought Chamier to Laurel for the second Laurel International in 1953.

O'Brien, who maintains his spacious training quarters at Ballydoyle House at Cashel, is ranked as one of the best and most versatile of modern trainers. During his career, he has saddled two Irish Derby winners and three Grand National winners among others.

McShain, a Philadelphian who races horses both abroad and in this country, purchased Ballymoss for $13,000 at the Doncaster (England) Yearling Sales in 1955. The chestnut son of Mossborough and Indian Call was consigned by Richard Ball who bred him at Garristown Stud in Ireland.

HUNTING

Hunting At Nantucket

The Treweryn Beagles were guests of The Nantucket Beagles for three weeks in July... each pack hunting hare on alternate days. Game was plentiful but the ground very dry so that scenting conditions were generally poor except in fog, or very early in the morning on the dew. The Nantucket hunted a five couple pack - all but one the same breeding - (Treweryn Bugler-Nantucket Hoodwink,) including 1 1/2 couples of young entry. The Treweryn brought only 7 couples or about half their pack including only first, second and third season hounds.

All the young entry started quickly and all were hunting at the end of the first week. The new Treweryn huntsman Bobby Scott, in the field for the first time, did a nice job even when he was only one able to stay up with the pack. Becky Sharp, as always, handled her Nantuckets beautifully and frequently without aid or necessity of a whipper-in. A brief diary follows:

Nantucket July 1957

Wednesday - 17th: The Nantucket at Somerset Farm. Bun & Becky Sharp mounted - John Todd in the jeep. Had a terrific run all over the moors to the south shore where we finally lost on the beach. It would have been impossible to stay with hounds on foot.

Saturday - 20th: The Nantucket at crossroads east of Somerset Farm which we have re-named "Jack Rabbitt Junction". As we drove up in the jeep we saw 6 or 8 hare playing together in the road and took a picture to prove it! Hounds caught sight of them and were in full cry in the jeep. Got away on one and ran several but scent was spoiled by a small gale and dust everywhere. Becky Sharp huntsman on foot J. Todd whipping-in, Janie, David III and Bun Sharp in jeep. Janie also whipping-in alternating with J. Todd.

Monday - 22nd: The Nantucket west of surfside sewer, drew along shore and found hare immediately which hounds ran nicely even owning the line up the beach. Damp wind off the sea helped scent. After a slight check in the sewer, whipper-in Sharp viewed our hare away while the Master put hounds on the line and away they went almost out of sight to the dunes at surfside where they checked. All hounds came back from their loss to Becky's horn and were taken home - too hot. Pack ran beautifully bunched.

Tuesday - 23rd: First rain in months gave us banner day. The Treweryn met late at 10:15 A.M. east of Hummock Pond. Found our hare at 10:25 and ran for one hour and 10 minutes ending up on the beach where we took them up at a check. The 7 couples ran beautifully together including all the young entry of which Minor has an excellent voice. Huntsman Bun Sharp, whipper-in - John Todd, Janie Knowles, David Sharp III and Becky. In the field - Sally Craven, little Sally and Sister Avie, Betsy Roosevelt, Muffy Godshaw.

Wednesday - 24th: Bobby Scott, back again, hunted the Treweryn from the sheep pens with Janie Knowles whipping-in. Had a nice straight driving hunt over Somerset Farm well out on to the moors doubling back to "Jack Rabbit Junction" where hounds may have changed but could not prove it. All young entry up. Field - Bun & Becky Sharp, John Faunce, John Ruth and Barbara Knowles.

Thursday - 25th: The Nantucket at surfside sewers 6:30 A. M. Found hare on the moors and ran to the beach where hounds did a beautiful job carrying the line up the beach on dry sand without a check, then inland all the way to surfside village. Ran two more hare later on the flats but scent failed on dry sand. Hornet - young entry by Treweryn Bugler - Nantucket Hoodwink, opened with an excellent voice and picked up the line after a check. Becky - huntsman, Janie - whipper-in, Bob Scott and Bun Sharp hilltopping on the dunes.

Friday - 26th: The Treweryn at the sheep pastures. Huntsman Bobby Scott (his last morning this summer at Nantucket) with the elder Sally Craven whipping-in (for the first three fields). Found hare in the third field, which was viewed away by Sally Craven. After some delay hounds got away and ran at good pace to "Jack Rabbit Junction" where Rouser, a second season hound picked up the line after a check and opened up on the sand road. From then on for the next hour Bobby, alone with the pack, ran all over the moors and to the south shore and back again. All young entry well up and hunting. At least six fresh hare were viewed, but the pack stayed on the hunted hare as far as we could tell. In the field - Mrs. Lewis Greenleaf, Donald Worth of Charlottesville, Virginia, Janie Knowles, Bun and Becky Sharp and young David. A good day.

Saturday - 27th: Becky hunted her Nantucket Beagles from the sheep pastures for Mrs. "Slim" Young, wife of the ex-MFH of the Whitelands Hunt, Bun Sharp and John Ruth, without any whipper-in. Hounds did an excellent job as Burgler Nantucket Hoodwink, carried the line down a dusty road and the pack took our hare back to the sheep pastures. A short draw produced a second hare which gave us a fast burst with all 5 couples neatly packed to the south shore. Hounds taken up because of hot sun.

Monday - 29th: After a day of rest on Sunday, Bun Sharp hunted his Treweryn 7 couples on the moors west of Hummock pond. On the way to the meet a great many fresh deer tracks on the sand road were noted with alarm but hounds got away immediately on a hare which ran to the beach. A check, a view back by Captain Gibbs, U. S. Coast Guard Retired, and the pack ran out of sight and hearing back to the scrub oaks. After a check, Becky saw tracks on the road, hounds were lifted and worked up to their hare in the sand dunes and ran at good pace back to the scrub oaks. Here Lofty, a young entry by Treweryn Burgess - their Matchless for the first time picked up the line by herself. After one hour and 15 minutes hounds were taken up as we all had enough. Janie and Becky whipping in with young David (aged 9). Janie broke down and pulled up sore, but Beck carried on in good shape. Old Sharp badly left.

Tuesday - 30th: The Nantucket at Tom Never's Head 6:30 A. M. A good hard rain had left the sandy coastal plain between the cliffs and the ocean damp enough to hunt. Becky drew her hounds along the beach grass and soon jumped a hare which gave us a good two mile straight away point to the U. S. Navy Installations. Whipper-in Bun Sharp requested permission to go through the property from the armed guard to which the Officer of the Day replied "negative". Hounds were called back. A good thirty-five minute run. A second hare was found which gave us another forty minute run and at least three miles in the other direction to the Coast Guard Station at Siasconset. Our house beagle Tiny otherwise known as "Rolling Rock Runt" all of nine inches high, followed in the wake of the Nantucket five couples giving vent with sharp yips.

Wednesday - 31st: The Treweryn, east of Hummock Pond. Nice short burst to the beach where we tracked one hare for one-quarter mile but found she ran the roads back onto the moors so far, we drew for another hare. Hounds then ran for well over an hour covering at least four miles probably changing hare. Huntsman - Bun Sharp, Becky, David and Janie whipping-in.

Friday - August 2nd: After movies of a rough trip to Bermuda the night before, the only one able to get up this morning was Becky, who took out her Nantucket Beagles alone, and when she came in declared she would not write up the hunt as no one would believe her. It was finally brought out that they ran a hare for one hour and twenty-five minutes up roads and down roads, around sand dunes and through pheasants, practically always in sight but hounds doing all the work themselves. She feels it is the best hunt she has had since giving up the Harriers.

Sunday - August 4th: Last hunt for Treweryn who are going home. Met at the sheep pastures and found a hare which gave a good run of a two mile point and three and one-half miles as hounds ran to the south shore. Huntsman - Bun Sharp, whipping-in - Becky and John Todd.

Fell Blood Introduced In West Waterford

Stanislaus Lynch

Foxes in the West Waterford Hunt district will need to undergo a spell of Olympic training if they intend to retain their brushes next season. The Acting Joint-Masters, Captain T. D. Morgan & Mrs. T. D. Morgan (who hunts the hounds) have added Fell-hound blood to the generous supply of College Valley blood introduced some years ago, and by all appearances seem to be evolving one of the fastest packs of foxhounds in Ireland.

This was the impression given at the recent Puppy Show held at the Duke of Devonshire's Lismore Castle, when four couples of doghounds & 5 1/2 couples of bitches were entered. The judges were Colonel David Price, M.F.H. & Captain H. Freeman Jackson, M.F.H.

Two and a half couples were by Guardsman, a big good - looking black & white Fell hound by Blencathra Talisman out of West Cumberland Guilty. Three litters of puppies, nearly all white, were by College Valley Legion; one litter out of Cumberland Guilty, the other two out of West Waterford dams Mannequin & Plucky.

They were all light - boned, racy, hounds that gave the impression that if earth - stopping was done effectively, they Best Doghound, Ploughman (College Valley Legion - Plucky), walked by Mr. J. O'Donoghue; 2. Globule (C. V. Legion - West Cumberland Guilty), walked by Mr. M. O'Mahony; 3. Gladstone (same breeding) walked by Mr. J. O'Keeffe. Best Bitch, Madcap, (C. V. Legion - Mannequin) walked by Miss Mary Roch; 2. Planet (C. V. Legion - Plucky) walked by Capt. M. Hall; 3. Glamorous (C. V. Legion - West Cumberland Guilty) walked by Mr. J. O'Keeffe.

Best Couple, Pleasant & Plover (Mr. M. O'Mahony); 2. Glisten & Glenwood (Mrs. Morrissey); 3. Danger & Dalesman (by Guardsman out of United Coquedale Dainty) walked by Master M. Scanlan.

A welcome feature, unusual at Irish puppy shows, was that the 9 1/2 couples were all shown in the ring by their walkers.

West Waterford hounds have been improved beyond all recognition in recent years. Their kennels include hounds from the Duke of Beaufort, the Pytchley and East Devon, together with black and tans from Sir. J. Buchanan Jardines's famous pack and the lighter - coloured Cotley. Now that Fell-hound, (Blencathra) blood has been introduced, in addition to the copious infusions of College Valley blood in recent years, the West Waterford should be one of the most interesting packs in Ireland, and its future progress should be well worth watching by anyone interested in the breeding of present-day foxhounds.

Cork City Otterhounds

Cork City Otterhounds are having a great season...the best for many years. Out of fourteen meets they have had thirteen hunts, and killed five otters... all in the open!

Last summer, through the kindness of Lt. Col. W. H. Buckley, master & huntsman of the Pembrokeshire & Carmarthenshire Otterhounds they got two couples of seasoned hounds which have turned out to be toppers. They have now 13 1/2 couples, some of which have still the old Wye Valley Otterhound blood they got some years ago.

Their best hunt this summer was from the meet at Mourne Abbey, on the main Cork to Mallow road. They found at Jordan's Bridge, and hunted hard up the Clyda river towards Burnfort. The otter was soon forced to leave the river, ducked through thick covert which delayed hounds, and ran in full view of the field for over 200 yards along the adjoining railway line. He entered and left the river several times during the next two miles, but hounds never had a heck and he then sought shelter in a river - bank ruin. He dashed in by the open door, but hounds were close behind & he was seen leaving through a back window, with hounds poring out behind him. Two hundred yards further on, they pulled him down in the open, after a three hours hunt, and one of the best they ever had.

A Prolific Hound

Some time ago Miss Phyllis Straker (now joint-Master of the Tynedale with her nephew, Mr. John Straker and Maj. N. Speke), gave the Yorkshire Glaisdale pack a bitch named Lawless. She so distinguished herself last season that she was mated with Proctor, perhaps the best hound in the Glaisdale pack. Lawless has just produced a litter of 15 puppies - an unusually large number, but not the record claimed for her locality. Mr. K. W. Horlock records that among the big litters he had when a Master of hounds one was of 17, and the great Peter Beckford in his "Thoughts on hunting" says: "Bitches will sometimes have an extraordinary number of puppies. I have known of one having fifteen, and a friend of mine assured me that a hound in his pack brought forth sixteen, all alive." Other similar instances could be quoted. They do not, however, minimise the remarkable performance of the four-year-old gift hound from the Tynedale. One of her fifteen puppies was dead, and eight more were put down so that she might have a better chance of coping with so large a family.

J. F.B.

(Editor's Note: A rough-coated Welsh Bitch named Lena in Mr. Newbold Ely's pack (Pennsylvania) some 25 years ago produced a litter of 23 which, with the care of their dam and a foster mother, all grew up to be entered.)

European Junior Championships

(White City, July 24-26)

Lt. Col. C. E. G. Hope

Having won the European Junior Jumping Championship in 1956 at Spa, England was the host country this year so the event was held during the Royal International Horse Show week at White City. Challenges came from Italy, Holland, France, Germany, Ireland, Belgium and one lone rider from U. S. A., Carol Sommers with Liguster. The riders' ages ranged from 14 to just under 18 - the top age limit, and the majority of the horses were well-known adult show jumpers of national and international repute; the only actual pony was the British individual championship holder, Jan White's Full Cry, which is just 14.2 h.h. high.

As a competition it is somewhat of a hybrid, being neither genuinely junior nor admittedly adult. The horses were all "adult" but the courses provided by the rules were juvenile so that in the first competition 11 riders formed up to share the first prize. Common sense prevailed to adjust the heights for future competitions, but the whole event needs re-thinking. So far as White City was concerned it was not a major success and the 4 competitions occupied really too much time, some of which might have been allotted to another top class national jumping competition or a genuine English juvenile competition, which was in fact crowded out.

The individual championship was marred by an incorrect British entry. Anne Townsend rode very well to beat the German national woman champion, Renate Freitag on Freya, but her horse, Irish Lace, was disqualified, having been placed in an international event at the C. H. I. O. (Dublin) the previous year, a fact which must surely have been known to somebody or readily discoverable. So the individual championship went in this back-handed way to Germany.

The team championship was more exciting than the adult Nations Cup, in that the issue was in doubt until the last rider had jumped. The Germans looked to have the best chance of beating us, but they failed on the day. With clear rounds by Anthony Makin on Montana II and Mary Barnes on Moonlight Gambler, we led the first round by 4 from Germany (8) and were equal with Italy. France came next with 12 faults. In the second jump, clear rounds by Jan White and Full Cry and Moonlight Gambler - one finished with a total of 8 faults. In spite of a second clear round by S. Angioni and Perla de Porto Conte, Italy lost 8 and finished with 12. France pulled off three clear rounds and so ended equal second with Italy, Germany being fourth.

Riding laurels can be awarded to all the British team, to Renate Freitag and Freya, to S. Angioni of Italy, to B. Dabier of France and Gui d'Avril, and to Miss A. Matheson of Ireland on Paleface, ridden at very short notice after Sea Lion had lame himself in the collecting ring. Carol Sommers rode well for U. S. A., being one of the youngest competitors.

On the whole it does not seem to me that there is much useful purpose in holding an international competition of this kind, not under the present rules at all events. Things are made too easy for the young idea, for whom it is better, I am sure, to have to work their way up in the rough and tumble of adult competitions - as most of them do - rather than run the risk of being inflated by premature publicity.

HORSE SHOWS

Warrenton

Mary Turner

The Warrenton Horse Show Committee wound up its show, tidied up the grounds and went home confident that it was worth the effort. The big Labor Day weekend event brought an entry of 982 to record their largest show ever. Cars were parked all over the place and people were parked all over the cars, freckles came out and the glow was an honest 100 proof, but it was a dandy show.

The home town stable of Waverly Farm carried off a majority of tri-colors to have it said they were the most successful stable, but it was hard to judge such top performers over the exacting outside course and the well-appointed inside ring. Price McIntosh rode his roan gelding, Son Imp, to tuck in the junior championship over Playboy, Langbourne Williams' Retreat Farm entry, ably ridden by Rodney Jenkins. Betty Bosley piloted Waverly's The Cad to the green jumper championship, leaving the reserve spot to Willow Creek Farm's Marina. Grover Stephens, former owner of Garden of Eden, rode this Waverly 4-year-old to a tie for green conformation championship with Cameda of Mrs. Winston Guest's Templeton Stables. Waverly didn't take home everything though; Peggy Augustus, owner-rider of Waiting Home, had a beautiful round to win the conformation championship, while Bobby Motch's Thou Swell held the reserve.

Dr. and Mrs. Alvin I. Kay, of Boginod Stable, Bethesda, Md., took home the piece de resistance of the Show by winning the John Barton Payne Perpetual Memorial Trophy. This "bibelot", the most sought after trophy in the show, is an enormous silver bowl that weighs in the hundreds. Dr. and Mrs. Kay's Ripple Boy garnered the blue with Kathy Kusner, promising young rider, in the irons. Bobby Motch's Thou Swell and Chinquapin Farm's Silverminer also competed, but were nosed out by Ripple Boy.

Betty Bosley did some superb riding and seemed to almost lift her champion The Clown over the jumper course. Mrs. Charles E. Skipper rode her good going Rusty to the reserve with Betty ahead by eight points.

The Virginia 4-Show Circuit awards which are based on points accumulated at Bath County, Glenmore, Deep Run and Warrenton were pinned at the show with Chuck Ackerman's Ani Boo first in the jumper division and New Hope Farm's All Shook Up reserve. Thou Swell, well named by the Motches, earned the conformation championship over Peggy Augustus' Waiting Home, with but 1/2 point's difference. In the equitation classes Beverly Harrison won the necessary points needed to ride at the Garden this year by winning the A. H. S. A. medal class and the A. S. P. C. A. Macay class.

The driving class brought out Lollobrigida, who would surely not have seen the resemblance. This entry was a slick looking and going little black donkey with Mrs. Edward Stephenson riding and driving to a blue in the donkey division.

food and dancing, and the summer residents of the area, many of whom are "horse folk", do a good deal of entertaining besides helping to run the show.

This year the Horse Show was held on August 9th and 10th. The Fair, with everything from baking and handiwork displays to ferris wheels, side shows and harness racing, starts one day earlier. N. H. Evely was chairman of the Horse Show that drew good entries and an even larger attendance than usual this year. The weather was good except for rain toward the end of the first day, but no one was heard to be grumbling, and the Saturday was sunny and hot.

When points were tallied up, W. R. Ballard's Geronimo and A. C. Texter's new purchase, The Spook, were found to be tied for the jumper championship. Theresa Coolin rode The Spook to win the jump off against Paddy Farrel on the Ballard buckskin. Norm Elder rode his father's Red Top to the working championship, and his brother Jim, riding The Whip, hacked off to break the tie for Reserve and lost to L. J. McGuinness on Colleen, one of the horses used on Canada's Three-Day Event Team at the last Olympics. Elaine Boylen's Valley Sign was conformation champion over Donald Vance's Bit O'Gold, while Robert Elder's Toy Ghost was green champion over Sam Stanley's Tweedle Dee.

2 Girl Riders

on International Teams

With a record eight international teams competing at the 69th National Horse Show at Madison Square Garden, November 5-12, two outstanding women riders will be among the military and civilian horsemen from both North and South America, Britain and Ireland.

Miss Pat Smythe and Mrs. Elena A. de Mayorga are scheduled to represent Great Britain and Argentina, respectively. Miss Smythe, was here once before, in 1953. Mrs. Mayorga, wife of Pedro Oscar Mayorga, captain of the Argentine team, has never competed in the U. S., nor has their country ever appeared at the National. Both girls have won high honors at home and in Europe.

The eight nations sending their best horsemen and mounts to the National Horse Show are Argentina, Canada, Chile, Great Britain, Ireland, Mexico, Venezuela and the United States. Venezuela, like the Argentine, has never before been seen in action at the Garden.

The U. S. Equestrian Team has nine horses and half a dozen riders under intensive training on the Alvin Untermyer estate at Greenwich, Conn. Under the coaching of Bert de Nemethy, William "Bill" Steinkraus, captain of the 1955-1956 teams, is leading his team mates as they prepare for their record number of rivals.

Greenbush

The Greenbush Junior Chamber of Commerce presented the second annual Greenbush Horse Show at Wood Field. The weather was perfect with a large attendance of spectators and exhibitors. St. Jude's riders were right there again to cop the honors, with Bob Heller of Scarsdale riding Driftwood taking champion working hunter and young Tommy McGuirk riding Coronation taking the jumper championship. Jumper reserve championship went to Blaze owned by Dave Goodman of Elizaville and ridden by himself while the hunter reserve championship went to Gayle Albertine riding her own Mr. Sandman. Gayle keeps her mount at the My Play Stables in Guilderton. Russell Stewart chalked up several ribbons riding his own two, Top Gallant and Bright Prospect, as well as Jean Stebbins' My Indian Maiden.

One of the highlights of the hunter division was the working hunter class for the East Greenbush Challenge Trophy won for the second time by Mrs. John Gottschalk with her good going mare, Omachic. She only has to win it once more in order to retain possession of it.

Winner of the novice jumper class is a new horse to shows within the last year. It is good to see this green horse starting to get pinned. Trumpeter is a big black gelding owned by Mrs. Lettie Peacock and ridden by H. Stanley.

There were two mishaps to mar the day. One was in the open jumper class when Danny Kelly riding Rafenesque Stable's March Wind took a spill and was taken out in the ambulance. Nevertheless he was back to ride in the bareback class where he took a third. The second was in the working hunter class when Joan Donna riding St. Jude's Such a One went down under the horse and he rolled over her. She was examined there and taken to the hospital, although she said she was all right, which she was.

McGuinness Farm

The McGuinness Farm Annual Horse Show, King, Ontario, August 18th, was held on the day following the One-Day Horse Trials. Maj. McGuinness and his farm manager, Maj. Anatole Pierregrodski, have developed the finest Olympic-type stadium jumping course in Canada. The big colourful obstacles were well accepted by the horses. The hunter course, which went through part of the show ring and then outside to silhouette one obstacle against the skyline on the hill beyond, was also very pleasing.

A. C. Texter's horses, The Spook and Politician, with Terry Coolin aboard, were the only two horses to go clean in the Puissance jumping, and Mr. Texter agreed to declare The Spook the winner. Jim Elder won the Mr. Jorrock's Jumping Stake - a "take-your-own-line" type of event. In the junior section for both these performance classes, Janet "Dinny" burns, of the Toronto and North York Hunt Pony Club, placed first with her new horse, Steelworker. Broadview.

Iron Curtain Horse Show

As little is known about equestrian sports behind the Iron Curtain, this year's International Horse Show in Leipzig (East Germany) proved particularly interesting.

There were six nations represented. In addition to East German riders and some private invaders from Western Germany there were teams from Russia, Rumania, Hungary, Poland and Sweden. Attendance at the show - 24,000 spectators came to see the show during the 3 days it lasted, 10,000 alone on the last day - showed that in East Germany interest in Equitation is still strong.

East Germany was represented by private competitors and by members of the "People's Police" and the new army. Unlike West Germany the Army in the "Democratic Republic" takes very strong interest in Equitation and has again an official army riding school in Karlshorst.

On the Russian and Rumanian teams

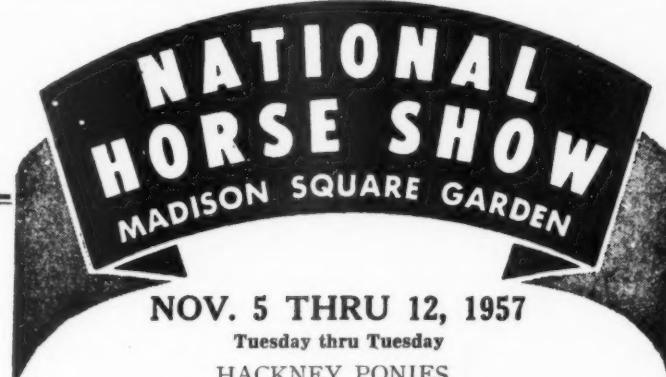

there were riders from last year's Olympic team. It was interesting to see that competitors from East Germany, as well as those from Russia and Rumania, had considerably improved since last year. As was to be expected from their Stockholm form the Russians were particularly impressive in dressage classes.

The Show included 6 jumping and 3 dressage competitions. The East German team won the team-jumping competition and, with Herr O. Rensch on Akelei, also the barrier jumping competition. The class M-jumping competition was won by the Rumanian Pincin riding Nor. Rumania's G. Thodorescu also won the Grand Prix de Dressage with Palatin.

Sweden had two victories, Herr Natterquist winning the two-horse jumping competition with Jubal and Pontus and Herr Skoldbrand winning the medium dressage test on his Puts. Russia carried off the coveted "Grober Preis of the German Democratic Republic", which was won by Herr Raspopow on Plustum after the jump-off. Herr Filatow (USSR), member of the Russian Olympic team last year, won the other medium dressage test on Ingus.

The Hungarian Karesu won the time jumping competition on the Stockholm veteran Arayus and also carried off the individual trophy in the team jumping competition.

Long Island Polo

Bill Briordy

Brookville's quartet registered its third straight Long Island Polo League triumph on Sunday, Sept. 1, when it rode to a 9-5 decision over Aiken at Bethpage (L. I.) State Park Field.

The second of Archie Young's four goals tied the score at 3-all in the second period. John Clements and Arthur Kaye counted for Aiken in the third chukker, but Art Norden slammed home Brookville's fourth tally in the third and Herb Pennell evened matters at 5-all in the fourth period.

From that point on, Aiken was held scoreless as the Brookville mallet-swingers added four more goals for the victory.

At the Meadow Brook Club in Jericho, L.I., young John Silvero led Meadow Brook to a 6-4 Long Island Polo League success over the Piping Rock Club side.

Silvero notched two goals in the third period to deadlock the score at 3-all. In the fourth chukker he scored on a long run from mid-field to put Meadow Brook in front, 4-3.

Al Marenholz stroked six goals as Blind Brook checked the Fairfield Hunt Club, 9 to 5, in a first-round match of the Eastern Division of the national 12-goal championship tournament at the Blind Brook Polo Club, Purchase, N. Y.

yard loft shot that went between the posts about 20 feet in the air.

In the fourth chukker there was no keeping up with Jack Whiting who scored 3 goals making a total of 6 for the afternoon. With a little more luck he might have tied the game up in the last 2 minutes; on two different occasions the ball missed the goal by inches.

In spite of a murky day, polo was played on the Bishop Hollow Polo Field, Sunday, Aug. 25th.

Rosemont Polo Club defeated Wayne Polo Club by a score of 5 to 2 in a game replete with hard riding and racing to finish the match before the rains came.

Bill Gill came out of his scoring slump by scoring 3 goals; one in the first chukker and two in the second and at the same time kept the back door closed so that the Wayne team could not penetrate the uprights. On two occasions Gill came out of a scrimmage with the ball and soloed down the field over two hundred yards to make the goal.

Swann, substituting for the Wayne three-some for half the game, scored their only goal. Kelly Barone, showing the results of excellent teaching, stole the ball from Jack Whiting in the third chukker netting a 30 footer, then the rains came.

STALL SCREENS

California horsemen and race track executives have reached a tentative agreement to try the stable screens which have been used so effectively at Caliente to insure horses against tampering and stimulation. The screens lap over the top of the bottom door of the stall and lock the horse in. They are made of half-inch hardware cloth and are secured by a lock which can be broken in case of such emergencies as fire or if a horse is cast in his stall. If the lock is broken the horse is automatically scratched for the race and subjected to saliva and urine tests. The cost of installation is about $50.00 per stall. Most of the stalls at Caliente have already been equipped with the screens.

Oak Brook Polo

Jack Cartusciello

On Aug. 25, Oak Brook and Detroit CCC put on an exhibition of what to expect in the United States National Open Polo Tournament. Both teams, playing superb polo, battled to six tie scores in six chukkers to force a sudden death chukker and a win for Oak Brook.

Del Carroll opened the scoring for Oak Brook in the first chukker as Bert Beveridge scored one for Detroit CCC.

Carroll scored a goal in the second chukker as Don Beveridge tied the score for CCC. Carroll and Smith each scored one for the Oak Brook team as George Oliver scored two for Detroit CCC to tie the score.

Ten-goaler Cecil Smith put Oak Brook in the lead in the second half as John Armstrong closed the goal on CCC.

Cecil Smith and George Oliver matched goal for goal in the fifth chukker.

It was George Oliver sinking the goal that tied the score in the sixth. Cecil Smith took charge in the seventh and, after eluding the opposition, went fifty yards to score the winning goal.

was acclaimed the timber champion of the year. Not put to training for a 1958 campaign, the half-sister to the stakes winning Erranford was bred in the early spring. Failing to conceive, the mare disappointed Capt. Bentley, but delighted trainer-rider Grover Stephens, when he was told to put the mare back in training.

Undefeated in her two starts over the Fair Hill course in 1957, the mare responded to the extra special attention showered on her by the young rider trainer from Warrenton, Va. Beautifully bedecked with green rosettes, so Grover Stephens couldn't have found a handful of mane, had he needed it, Gillian went to the post a very fit horse. Wisely hustled to the front in the down-hill run to the 1st fence, Gillian led the field over and stayed out of any possible trouble as Mrs. A. H. Hutchison's Night Command refused and wheeled in a circle to finally make it, under Melvin Ferral's urging.

Having felt out his field over the 1st obstacle, Stephens rated Gillian and permitted Miss Jane L. Flaccus' Simple Samson, under apprentice R. Beach to show the way. Knowing the course well, Stephens kindly let young Beach take the long way to the 5th fence with a nice advantage. Approaching the fence on a long angle, Gillian shaved the lead and took command upon landing. Well rated, the mare did not open up on her field, but permitted Simple Samson to run along with her, with Mrs. Henry Obre's *Coup-de-Vite, also making a bid. Going exceeding well for neophyte timber performers, Simple Samson and young Beach showed briefly in front of Gillian as the pair cleared the 10th fence. Shaking off Simple Samson upon landing, Gillian then received a bid from Mrs. C. Paul Denckla's Ned's Flying and Joseph Aitcheson, Jr.

Over the 15th, with 2 to go, Gillian led by 5-lengths with Ned's Flying showing a 1 1/2 length advantage over *Coup-de-Vite. On landing over the 16th, the latter responded to Kenneth Field and got within 3-lengths of Gillian as the final fence was negotiated. Clearing this obstacle like a stag, Gillian increased her lead under a hand ride to win by 5-lengths. *Coup-de-Vite gained 2nd honors, 9-lengths to the good of the tiring Ned's Flying. Running a remarkable race for a "first-timer" over timber, Simple Samson finished 4th. Well strung out behind, Mrs. John B. Hannum, 3rd's entry of Inn Field, with John B. Hannum, IV up, and El Arabi with her husband aboard, led the tiring Night Command over the finish line. Earlier in the race, El Arabi refused the 4th fence.

In registering her 3rd victory in as many starts over the rolling Fair Hill, Md., course, Gillian was timed in 6:28. This could have been bettered, but Grover Stephens had no reason to call upon the mare for anything but a winning race.

THE CHRONICLE

Crighton, Winner On Flat

Under the Maryland racing laws, the meeting must offer two jumping races for each flat event and the latter opened the day of sport as the daily-double. Following 2 unsuccessful starts at the recent Saratoga meeting, C. Mahlon Kline's home-bred, Crighton, responded to Ed Deveau and turned back Mrs. Vernon G. Cardy's Tombigbee to graduate from the maiden ranks by 3-lengths. Best of the other 10 contenders, Montpelier's home-bred, Sea Chart, finished 3rd under Evan Jackson. Named the Lewisville and contested over a 7-furlong turf course, the event was run over hard going and fell to the 3-year-old gelding in 1:28.

*Evian Scores

Noted more for his ability over obstacles, Mrs. Vernon G. Cardy's *Evian accounted for the Big Elk, a 1 1/16 miles race over turf for $3,500 to $4,000 claimers. Running with a claiming tag of $3,500 *Evian caught Mrs. M. G. Walsh's Disgraceful in the stretch and responded to Murt Hoey to show a 3 1/2 length advantage at the wire. Finishing 8-lengths in the wake of Disgraceful, J. McC Davis' *Dafila finished 3rd in the field of 6 starters. Making his first start on the flat since the 1956 spring meeting at Middleburg, Va., *Evian was clocked in 1:49 1/5.

Registering their first of two victories for the day, trainer Mike Smithwick and jockey Paddy Smithwick teamed up to win the Christiana Hurdle with R. A. Norden's Prince Nam. Meeting 7 other maiden hurdlers, the 4-year-old Nizami II-Affiliate gelding bred by Henry J. Stringer, Jr., led over the 7 hurdles on the 1 1/2 mile course to defeat C. Mahlon Kline's favored Gridiron by 3 1/2 lengths. The latter just saved the place award by a neck from Mrs. Henry Obre's Easy Seen. In winning his first race over hurdles, Prince Nam negotiated the route in 2:51 2/5.

Returned to hurdle racing after a recent victory on the flat at the Timonium Fair meeting, Mrs. Henry Obre's *Thrill 2nd won the Cowentown, a 1 3/4 mile test over hurdles for claiming horses of the $4,500 to $3,500 calibre. Ridden by Kenneth Field, *Thrill 2nd wrested command from the Arcadia Stable's Caste in the stretch run and went on to win by 1 1/2 lengths. The latter, ridden by Paddy Smithwick, found the same margin separating him from Miss Mary Rumsey's Tall Mound, under William Mason. With a heavy rain pelting down on the 8 starters in the final race, *Thrill 2nd covered the 10 hurdles and the 1 3/4 miles in 3:15 4/5.

SUMMARIES:

The Lewisville, abt. 7 furlongs (turf course), 3 & up. Purse: $800. Net value to winner: $520; 2nd: $160; 3rd: $80; 4th: $40. Winner: b.g., 3, by Siam Bang-Gala Spirit, by Stimulus. Trainer: M. H. Dixon. Breeder: C. M. Kline. Time: 1:28.

Racing Review

Plotter, which tired and finished fourth in the mile-and-an-eighth Diana Handicap at Saratoga, fit nicely in Belmont's Vagrancy at seven-eighths. She won by a head over Searching. Plotter carried 120 and Searching 126. In third place was Nasrina; Recherche was fourth. Searching was the heavy choice. The winner paid 4 to 1.

Mrs. Hellen set the pace, with Plotter doing the forcing, for about five furlongs. As the front-runner tired, Plotter took over and Searching started her dash toward the top. The latter made up 2 1/2 lengths in the last eighth, to come within a yard of $16,450. She had to settle for the $4,000 second money.

Plotter is aptly named; her dam is Discovery's daughter, Conniver. Double Jay is her daddy.

The four-year-old filly was registering her sixth win of 1957. She has a second and a third and her earnings since January 1 amount to $48,050.

Plotter won the Top Flight Handicap, at Belmont, in July.

The filly is the property of Mr. Harry La Montagne, who bred her. Willie Post trains and Pete Anderson has ridden her in recent races.

Washington Park

Pucker Up, a four-year-old filly belonging to Mrs. Ada L. Rice, defeated Find and Swoon's Son to take the one-mile Washington Park Handicap on Labor Day (September 2). The race, worth $80,800, was the feature of the final program at the Washington Park meeting.

Under Bill Shoemaker, who contributed much to the 111-pound impost, got Pucker Up away smartly and never was she headed. Find drove up to be about a length and a half behind her at the stretch call, but Pucker Up drew away and won by three. Swoon's Son finished half a length back of Find and the same distance before St. Amour II. Find carried 122 pounds; Swoon's Son 130.

Pucker Up is by Olympia, out of Lou Lea, by Bull Lea. She was bred by Danada Farm, which belongs to Dan and Ada Rice - married folks.

J. P. Conway trains for the stable.

Atlantic City

Li'l Fella has been an every-other race horse, but he made it two in a row when he took the World's Playground Stakes at Atlantic City on September 7.

The Jaclyn Stable's two-year-old star won a maiden race at first asking, in May. Right after that he finished third in the Cherry Hill. Then he won the Juvenile and followed that victory by finishing second in the Tremont. Next came the Great American, which he won by a neck, and 16 days later missed by a nose in the Sapping.

On August 30, he took an allowance race without much trouble, and shook off his win-lose-win jinx in the World's Playground, scoring easily by 3 1/2 lengths.

He was the hot choice at 7 to 10. With Leather Button, he shared the honor of top weight. Each carried 122.

The two most experienced horses in the race finished second and third, Chance it Tony, making his 13th start, earned second place, and Columbia Gem, coming out for the 14th time was third.

Plion was fourth.

The World's Playground added $22,822. 50 to the $66,720 already in Li'l Fella's treasure chest, and that makes a total of $89,542.50.

Bill Hartack had the mount on Li'l Fella. Sidney Jacobs trains him.

The son of *Nirgal (from Radio Time, by EightThirty) was bred by Jaclyn Stable, the racing establishment of Dr. Leon Levy and Mrs. Blanch Levy (more married folks). Dr. Levy has a slice of the Atlantic City racetrack.

Miss Marian McKnight, Miss America of 1957, was on hand and passed the trophy to the happy owners of the winner. Her presence did not distract the patrons to a point where they neglected their betting. Each of the 22,943 sports lovers put up $89.33 (on the average) for processing, and got back $77.72 (also on the average) less breakage. Some did considerably better, and some - Well, you've got to go both ways if you're going to have an average.

Boardwalk Handicap

F. A. Piarulli's Vertex skipped away from four rivals to win the mile-and-one-eighth Boardwalk Handicap at Atlantic City on Labor Day.

The son of The Rhymer-Kanace, by Case Ace, was the high-weight in the race for three-year-olds, under 120 pounds, and the odds-on choice, at 3 to 10. He opened up a big lead in the beginning and coasted to win over Assemblyman by a length and one-half.

Gama was third and Dark Trust, fourth. Inswept, the second choice in the race, did little running and ended up last of five.

Sam Boulmetis was aboard for the workout.

Vertex won the Choice at Monmouth, early in August.

With the $7,786.25 from the Boardwalk, he has season's earnings of $43,408.25. He has 4 wins and 2 seconds in six starts.

Last year, he won 2 out of 3, and $5,330.

Mr. Piarulli bred him and J. F. Piarulli, the owner's son and a former school teacher, trains him.

Short Takes of Late Stakes

Hawthorne opened its meeting on September 3 with the Hawthorne Inaugural Handicap, which went to Craigwood. Doogon won the Chicago Handicap at Hawthorne on September 7.

GERMAN FOREIGN TRADE

The ADP, the body governing horse breeding and shows in Germany has published its annual survey for 1956.

As in the years before, exports of German-bred horses have increased.

There were 119 horses exported for breeding purposes, fetching a total of 497,000 Marks (1955: 71 horses brought 125,000 Marks). In the sector of saddle, racing and driving horses there is also an upward movement; from 1016 horses sold in 1955, exports mounted to 1086 bringing 2,265,000 Marks.

In the breeding horse sector chief buyer was Poland, which acquired 32 horses for 250,000 Marks, followed by Holland, Denmark and Italy. As before the war, breeding in Poland is done largely along similar lines as in Germany; apparently the many pre-war connections existing between Germany and Poland are being renewed.

As usual most of the riding horses went to Switzerland, which bought 682 horses for 1,242,000 Marks. Next on the list came Belgium (118 horses for 159,000 Marks) and the Netherlands (85 horses for 192,000 Marks). Other buyers included, besides the U. S. A., Spain, Italy, Austria and Denmark.

Imported into Germany were 476 work horses (541 in 1955), 113 breeding horses (100 in 1955), 17 riding horses (22 in 1955) and 558 foals and ponies (502 in 1955). Among the latter are a large number of the so-called "Fjord-horses", a pony breed from Norway and Denmark, which is becoming increasingly popular here.

N. Y. TURF WRITERS' AWARDS

At a breakfast at the Saratoga Race Track on August 22nd, the New York Turf Writers' Association distributed its annual plaques - to C. V. Whitney for his contributions to racing over the years; to Mrs. Henry Carnegie Phipps as the year's outstanding breeder; to Willie Hartack as the outstanding jockey and to "Sunny" Jim Fitzsimmons and H. Allen Jerkens who were tied in the balloting as the outstanding trainers.

COLOR PHOTOGRAPH EXHIBITION

An exhibition of color photographs taken by Elaine Werner of the U. S. Equestrian Team's European competitions, was recently held at Teela-Wootton Camp. In answer to the many questions of these interested young equestrians, Miss Werner lectured on "Equitation of the U.S.E.T. - Horse and Rider." Later, she lectured on "Equitation Photography."

MONMOUTH BUYS O'CONNOR LIBRARY

At the auction sale of the turf library of the late John L. O'Connor, otherwise known as "The Sage of Schuylerville", which took place at the Swann Auction Galleries in New York on Thursday, April 18th and which had been catalogued in nearly 300 separate lots, the auctioneer announced that the Executors of the Estate had decided to first offer it as a whole for an upset bid of $11,000. Philip H. Iselin, treasurer of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club, thereupon bid the upset sum. There being no other bidders the entire library was knocked down to Monmouth Park which plans to house the library in a special room at the race track. It will be known as the John L. O'Connor Turf Library and will be augmented by the books now possessed by Monmouth Park and by others which may be added to it in the future. As Mr. O'Connor got his first introduction to racing through the stable of Gideon and Daly (the latter being his uncle) at the old Monmouth track nearby, the permanent location of his library is particularly appropriate. This was the general consensus of the many otherwise disappointed buyers who had gathered to bid on individual items at the sale. The library is particularly strong in files of early American horse periodicals notably "The American Turf Register", "The Spirit of the Times", "Turf, Field and Farm", "The New York Sportsman", etc.

HOUSE BROKEN

Question: Are horses in any way to be compared with dogs in the matter of intelligence? I do not think they can be, but I have friends who say some horses are real bright. Signed, Inquirer.

Answer: While we doubt whether the average horse is quite as intelligent as the average dog, we have seen horses do some very bright things. In the black goat-hair tent of an Arab we have seen an ancient white mare grab a baby by its didie, or whatever people call the messy triangle used on the very young, and drag it away from a fire. The child beat her on the nose and howled with rage, but she did her duty.

A horse when once trained to do something tends to do it regardless, without any apparent attempt to reason the thing out, whereas a dog usually realizes that circumstances alter cases.

Once in India, where one groom to each horse was the rule, pay being $5 per month, we suddenly had one of our grooms go sick with malaria. His horse, a polo pony, got sick also, very sick, apparently from complete stoppage of its insides. We could do nothing and the veterinarian was also completely baffled. Late that night our head groom crept into our bungalow, beat his forehead on the ground in shame, and confessed that he knew what the trouble was. The absent groom had trained the horse to do his duty only when a bucket was held under him, thus avoiding the necessity of changing the straw of his bedding and enabling the wicked groom to sell it to his friends.

We dashed into the groom's quarters, kicked the sinner from his bed of sickness and hurried him to the stable. He placed a bucket under the horse and whistled a few notes of a popular native tune. An expression of intense pleasure, not to say relief, was registered by the horse and his master, and in a few minutes all was well.

A dog would not have been such a fool, but don't let anyone tell you you can't housebreak a horse. You can.

Chronicle Cover

Our cover is of the top of an ivory mirror box, carved in France during the first half of the 14th century.

Although it is evident that the gentleman has organized this expedition into the greenwood ostensibly for the purpose of hawking, his mind appears to be on other things. As for the lady, in order to extricate herself from this compromising situation, she urges on her steed with a flick of the whip which appears to be more coy than effective. A. M-S.

Letters To The Editor

intimate with the owners and riders? Perhaps judges appointed by The American Horse Shows Association, or some other organization, would be helpful. The judges could be professionals. Their expenses and salaries could be paid by the contributions made from all horse shows, large and small. They could be administered by one individual without pay. If a group promoting a horse show wanted judges for gaited horses or hunters, they would ask the horse show commissioner to send one, two, or more judges.

This is not being offered as a very serious solution, but at least it may have the effect of starting a process of thinking by the individuals who read this communication.

"Old Timer"

Postscript

Dear Sir:

Having seen the verses entitled "No Cavalrymen in Hell" which appeared in the August 2nd issue of The Chronicle, page 2, and being an ex-Cavalryman myself, I sent the copy of the verses to one of my Gunner friends, who replied as follows -

Postscript to "No Cavalrymen in Hell"
The Devil he came to claim them
Where the battle had raged and died,
Gunners, Sappers, Infantrymen
They lay there side by side.
He searched in vain for a trooper,
In battle so seldom seen,
But he knew where they'd be,
They'd be brewing their tea
In the Canteen at Fiddler's Green.

I thought the postscript might amuse some of your readers who also have the misfortune not to be ex-Cavalrymen.

Yours faithfully,
J. D. Riddick (Colonel)

Wrong Order

Dear Sir:

In justice to my friend, J. Arthur Reynolds, and his nice bay mare, "Cando", I would like to correct a slight error in the August 23rd issue.

On page 22 the cutlines under a picture of my daughter, Nancy, indicated that her mare, Watch Meretic, was Working Hunter Champion at Asheville. Actually, Cando was Champion and Watch Meretic Reserve.

This error is understandable, as the Asheville papers made the same mistake, for which reason I would particularly appreciate your correcting it in The Chronicle.

Cordially yours,
Cody Laird
